(1) What does this passage teach us about God's view of sin and sinners?

(2) What sin(s) are you tolerating instead of fleeing? What steps are you taking toward repentance, and how can we pray for you?

(3) Where has fear, doubt, or comfort delayed your obedience like Lot? How has God shown you mercy in those times?

(4) What warning comes from Lot's wife looking back? Where are you tempted to long for past sins or worldly security?

(5) How should the certainty of God's future judgment shape your priorities, prayer, and Gospel proclamation?
