Connect Group Questions – March 29, 2026

1. Do you follow Jesus more for who He is or for what He gives? How can we root our devotion in His person rather than His perks?

2. Where is God calling you to humility or obedience, even when it is difficult, unseen, or counterintuitive?

3. How can we continue to trust and remain faithful when God's plans aren't clear, and we do not understand what He is doing?

4. When has God's plan surprised you, and what did it teach you about surrendering to His wisdom?

5. In what areas of your life are you chasing power, recognition, or control, and how can you instead live out Christ's upside-down kingdom through love, service, and sacrifice?
