Connect Group Questions

(1) What priorities in your life reveal that you may not be living with eternity in view?

(2) In the changing seasons of your life, where do you find yourself resisting what God has appointed instead of trusting His timing—and why?

(3) How are you currently investing your time, energy, and resources in ways that have lasting spiritual impact?

(4) If today were your last day, what would you wish you had done more faithfully for God's glory—and what step can you take now, by His grace?

(5) What is your primary next step of application from this sermon?