Connect Group Questions – May 3, 2026

1) In what ways does the life and sacrifice of Jesus shape your understanding of what it means to live in obedience to God's will?

2) When God makes His direction clear, what tends to hold you back from fully following it—fear, comfort, control, or something else?

3) How can you intentionally pause and worship when you see God at work instead of quickly moving on to the next thing?

4) Who in your life needs to hear about what God is doing in you, and what keeps you from sharing that more openly?

5) What is one concrete step of obedience God may be calling you to take right now, and how can the group help you follow through this week?
