Connect Group Questions – May 10, 2026

1) In Genesis 25:1–11, why is it significant that Abraham gave everything to Isaac, and what does that reveal about how God's promises work?

2) What might God be teaching or forming in a person during seasons when His promises seem delayed?

3) How does Isaac praying for what God already promised shape the way you think about prayer?

4) What do you find challenging or comforting about God choosing Jacob before he was born (Genesis 25:23; Romans 9)?

5) Which do you most need to trust right now—God's clarity, His power, or His sovereignty—and what is one step you can take this week in response?
