Connect Group Questions

(1) In what areas of life are you most tempted to choose immediate satisfaction over Scriptural priorities?

(2) What are some warning signs that your desires are beginning to control your decisions instead of the Holy Spirit?

(3) How can unchecked appetites or desires distort a person's spiritual perspective and priorities like they did for Esau?

(4) When have you made a short-term emotional decision that cost you something valuable in the long term?

(5) What are some practical ways to "feed your faith" instead of your flesh this week?