1) What does the psalmist's thirst for God teach us about the deepest needs of our souls?

2) How does Psalm 42 help us respond when we feel spiritually dry, discouraged, or distant from God?

3) How does knowing that God is sovereign over our trials encourage us in seasons of suffering?

4) What does it look like practically to preach the gospel to yourself instead of simply listening to your feelings and circumstances?

5) How does Jesus satisfy the seeking soul, sustain the suffering saint, and strengthen our hope in Him?
