(1) What are some practical ways that we can come to a familiar text like Psalm 23 in a way that keeps it spiritually fresh?

(2) In what ways is the world opposed to real beauty, truth, and goodness? Which of them are we most specifically tempted by and why?

(3) Give testimonies of when you have really enjoyed Jesus. It could be a sweet devotional or worship time, noticeable victory over sin etc.

(4) How does living a life "for his name's sake" radically change our approach to life?

(5) Where are the "valleys" in our lives right now, where we need encouragement and support to know the truth that Jesus is both over the trial and with us in it?
