Connect Group Questions

(1) What stands out about Isaac's command to Jacob? Why does obedience matter when we don't understand what God is doing?

(2) What did Jacob try to accomplish through deception that God fulfilled through His promise? Where are you tempted to take matters into your own hands?

(3) How do God's blessing and His commands work together? Why is grace never a license for disobedience?

(4) What does Esau's response teach us about the difference between outward change and genuine heart transformation?

(5) Where are you tempted to put "new paint over old rust"? What would genuine repentance look like in that area?