“Conceit, Compromise, and Consequence” | Genesis 19:30-38 | Jack Adams

Introduction

Lot’s Commendation and Lot’s Condemnation

The Progression of Sin

1. The _____ of sin: Sin irrationally limits our options. Promises much and delivers little. Self-sufficiency = _____; Pleasure->_____, Satisfaction->_____.

2. The _____ of sin: Our morally compromised decisions in work, education, and lifestyle affect us and our families. Sad irony that Lot wasn't drawn into sin in community but did sin when he was in isolation.

3. The _____ of sin: Sin has generational consequences: Moabites and Ammonites were fierce enemies of Israel for centuries to come. Jesus may forgive us, but those we have hurt remain hurt.

Take Home

1. Scripture is _____ to counsel in all areas of life. Our responses to life are conditioned by what we actually believe.

2. God takes the way we raise our children _____.

3. The Gospel of grace can _____ us from even the darkest of circumstances.

Pleasant Valley Church exists to love God, love one another, and reach the world.

Connect Group Questions

(1) How are the truthfulness and sufficiency of Scripture reinforced by dark passages such as Gen. 19:30-38?

(2) Re-read 2 Cor. 5:21 and then 1 Cor. 10:11-12. How does the example of Lot bring glory to Christ but also warning to us?

(3) Sin begins with conceit, leads to compromise, and ends with consequences that often affect others. We can seek personal forgiveness from Jesus, but how practically can we both rest in the shame-removing power of the Gospel and approach those we have sinned against?

(4) What are some practical ways we can raise/disciple our children (and grandchildren) in a biblical way?
